EWSolutions' President, David Marco, Receives DAMA Professional Achievement Award

Chicago, IL (3/1/2008) – Data Management Association (DAMA) International recently announced their annual Achievement Award recipients. EWSolutions' President David Marco will be presented with the very prestigious 2008 DAMA Professional Award at the DAMA Symposium and Wilshire Meta Data Conference later this month.

This prominent award for professional achievement is presented each year to a member from the business community who has made significant and demonstrable contributions to information and data resource management (IRM/DRM). Each year DAMA International presents achievement awards in four areas:

Professional Award - A member from the business community who has made significant, demonstrable contributions to IRM or DRM.

Academic Award - A member from academia who has done outstanding research or theoretical contributions in the area of IRM or DRM.

Government Award - A member from the public sector who has promoted the inclusion and adherence to standards creditable of IRM or DRM principles.

DAMA Community Award - A member of the DAMA community who has gone beyond the call of volunteer service to enhance the efforts of providing exceptional benefits to DAMA.

Nominations for the Professional Award were submitted from worldwide DAMA chapters over the past several months. The DAMA Awards Committee was looking for leaders who have made a significant contribution in their respective category, specifically in the area of IRM / DRM or to DAMA.

Anne Marie Smith, DAMA International Ethics Officer, states, "David Marco's nod for the award was unanimous and that all members of the committee felt strongly that the award was long overdue."

David Marco is part of a prestigious group of recipients including, Academic Award recipient John Talburt, Ph. D University of Arkansas; Government Award recipient, Suzanne Acar, Senior Information Architect for the U.S. Department of Interior; Community Award recipient N. Michael Scofield, Manager, Data Asset Development for ESRI, Inc. More information on these awards and previous recipients is available on the DAMA-I website:
